

You're invited to Lunch Bunch!

Lunch Bunch is an hour-long volunteer mentor opportunity where local professionals spend their lunch hour with Harding Elementary students.

- Positive role models & professionals from the Santa Barbara community communicate and engage with children during their lunch hour.
- Fosters positive interactions with adults & the community, improving trust and self-esteem for children.
- Encourages children to show initiative both in and out of school.
- Provides students with new career ideas.
- A rewarding experience for both the children and adult mentors.

Lunch Bunch volunteer opportunities are available beginning on June 24th through July 25th, 2019 from 12:00pm -1:15pm at FIVE different locations: Franklin Elementary, Harding Elementary, El Camino Elementary, Carpinteria Middle School and Solvang Elementary!

Follow these simple steps to get in on all the fun!

Step 1- Recruit your team! Post fliers, send emails & get people excited! (Flier attached)

Step 2- Pick a site and sign up!

Step 3- Get creative! If you want to do something special for the kids, there are many options. Including BBQ's, pizza parties, crafts, and science experiments. We are also accepting donations of playground toys and books!

Step 4- Alert United Way of any changes to your team's participation as soon as possible!

Step 5- Don't be late! Arrive at your volunteer site with your own lunch at 12pm to sign in and receive a brief orientation from a United Way representative.

Step 6- HAVE FUN!

Thank you for serving as a volunteer for your group/company!
